| Prof. Lee was an absolute professional. It was clear that he put a lot of thought and effort into the course, and all his work payed off. He did a superb job and gave great feedback. I have only nice things to say. |
| Loved this class and the assignments! I do wish that we would have had feedback from previous assignments sooner so we knew what we did wrong to change it for the next assignment. |
| Made all the readings make sense. Very clear with instructions on projects, helpful with learning material, and promoted good and focused discussions. I had no problems with him as a teacher. |
| Rory, you are fantastic. This is probably in my top 2 classes I have ever taken at Ball State. As a TCOM major, I was nervous about taking an english course. You are incredibly intelligent and clear in your teachings. Thank you so much for your time and patience. |
| Rory Lee is an amazing teacher. He explains every concept in detail and leads interesting discussions. The examples and readings are helpful and academic. He does not talk down to the students and is always available if we need any help or clarification. The projects integrate what we've learned in class so we actually get practice applying what we've learned to real-life exigencies. I cannot commend Rory Lee enough. He deserves all the awards and probably a raise. |
| Rory is the coolest most chill professor on campus. I enjoyed you and the class even though both drove with crazy with the focus on digital technology. I must saw though it opened my eyes to some issues in education that I had not previously thought about. Thanks |

All the the projects were great experiences. Wished I had more time to fully develop the projects. Discussions could get boring sometimes but I liked that everyday was a bit different (large group/small group/individual work).

This course is great. Not your typical course. Extremely engaging and I WANTED to do all of my projects and homework.

This course is awesome. Seriously. Every English major / Ed. major / TCOM major should take this class. It is fantastic. Especially if Lee is teaching it.

This is, by far, one of the best English classes I've taken. I learned so much in this course that I wouldn't have really thought about outside of it.
