1. Please provide any additional written comments on the instructor's strengths and weaknesses.	Some of the stuff in this class goes over my head, but I enjoy listening to the conversations we have, even if I don't contribute every time. I like that we talk about more politically charged things, especially since it's sort of taboo in most other classes to really get into politics like that.
2. Please provide any additional written comments on the strengths and weaknesses of the course. You may comment on such things as the use of assignments, text(s), exercises, exams, etc.	Some (most) of the stuff we've done or talked about in this course is completely new to me. I think I've definitely learned a lot in a lot of different areas in this class. Some of the reading was really heady, but a lot of it was easier to digest.
3. Please provide any additional written comments on the instructor's strengths and weaknesses.	He is an extremely effective teacher who makes the content both interesting and relevant. He is always available for consultations and works with students on deadlines in an understanding manner.
4. Please provide any additional written comments on the strengths and weaknesses of the course. You may comment on such things as the use of assignments, text(s), exercises, exams, etc.	I would like to know how I am doing in the class without having to email the professor.
5. Please provide any additional written comments on the strengths and weaknesses of the course. You may comment on such things as the use of assignments, text(s), exercises, exams, etc.	Rory does a great job of making the class interesting through discussions and the projects.
6. Please provide any additional written comments on the instructor's strengths and weaknesses.	very conversational in a subject matter that can be difficult to understand.
7. Please provide any additional written comments on the strengths and weaknesses of the course. You may comment on such things as the use of assignments, text(s), exercises, exams, etc.	I feel like the class gave me more freedom/agency than any previous English course, and I liked that a lot. I think talking more about the readings/videos/issues in class would have helped me understand more.
8. Please provide any additional written comments on the instructor's strengths and weaknesses.	Always kind and respectful, always willing to help students if they don't understand the material/want feedback, a really great person and professor
9. Please provide any additional written comments on the strengths and weaknesses of the course. You may comment on such things as the use of assignments, text(s), exercises, exams, etc.	Class is always full of meaningful discussion over the readings/videos.
10. Please provide any additional written comments on the instructor's strengths and weaknesses.	Only real problem I can think of is that one might feel very unwelcomed if they were a conservative, and that could be a form of distraction in the class, but other than this the class was taught the way I think any student would view as ideal

11.	Please provide any additional written comments on the instructor's strengths and weaknesses.	Rory was incredibly involved with his students and the 1 on 1s were really beneficial for the projects. I wish I could have received feedback on Project 2 before working on Project 3, but the feedback he provides is so specific and appreciated. I really enjoyed the feel of the class that Rory created, and I never felt like I could not be candid. I sometimes felt like I would say something and Rory's response would not quite address what I had just said. However, I completely felt that Rory eradicated every "white male" stereotype and was very inclusive each person.
12.	Please provide any additional written comments on the strengths and weaknesses of the course. You may comment on such things as the use of assignments, text(s), exercises, exams, etc.	I enjoyed our discussions, but I felt like it often got off on topics that really weren't pertinent to the course. My biggest frustration with the course was the readings. They were very long, and we often did not have enough class time to even discuss them. They also were often repetitive and a bit pretentious.
13.	Please provide any additional written comments on the instructor's strengths and weaknesses.	Dr. Lee is a great professor and extremely helpful. Made sure he was available and tried very hard to answer our questions, or at least make us think about them.
14.	Please provide any additional written comments on the instructor's strengths and weaknesses.	Dr. Lee was fantastic. He explained everything clearly and led a very democratic classroom. I felt engaged in every class and that I had a say in how the class was run and how content was graded. Dr. Lee treated us with respect and valued all of our viewpoints. He also made himself available and was very understanding and helpful during conferences. The class was relevant, informative, and fun.
15.	Please provide any additional written comments on the strengths and weaknesses of the course. You may comment on such things as the use of assignments, text(s), exercises, exams, etc.	Everything I learned in Dr. Lee's class I will take with me and use in the future. It broadened my perspectives on the digital world and how much affects it. There was not one class that I did not walk away feeling as though I did not learn anything new. The readings and assignments were thoughtful, introspective, and interesting. I wish I could take the class again. Great work.
16.	Please provide any additional written comments on the instructor's strengths and weaknesses.	Rory does a really great job of engaging his students and creating an environment that I was comfortable in and I really enjoyed being in his class. I felt like everyday was something new and I learned more in this class than I have in many other classes at Ball State.
17.	Please provide any additional written comments on the strengths and weaknesses of the course. You may comment on such things as the use of assignments, text(s), exercises, exams, etc.	I enjoyed every project that we did for Rory's class because we were given so much freedom on what we chose to focus our projects on, which is something I really haven't had the opportunity to experience in any of my other classes. I felt like in his class we were all treated as equals and given a lot of freedom, which unfortunately isn't uniform for all the classes I've taken or probably will take. Definitely one of my favorite classes I've ever taken and I'm really glad someone suggested for me to take his class!
18.	Please provide any additional written comments on the instructor's strengths and weaknesses.	Rory is the epitome of what a good professor should be. In the entirety of my educational career, I have never had an educator treat me with such respect and demonstrate such a willingness and ability to teach well, field questions and comments, and promote a learning environment that fostered growth and success for each and every student enrolled in this course. Although rigorous, the class was set up in a clear and easy to conquer way, and Rory was extremely helpful in guiding us along each activity and project in a way that made all of us more excited than nervous about the next new thing. His feedback was always extensive and supportive, and he was very clear about the importance he placed in us enjoying and learning from our work.
19.	Please provide any additional written comments on the strengths and weaknesses of the course. You may comment on such things as the use of assignments, text(s), exercises, exams, etc.	I would love it if this class was required for all majors! The skills I learned outside of digital literacy go beyond what most classes provide. I learned more about the world around me than I have in other classes, even those geared toward understanding political/social/cultural powers that be. This class allowed me to create projects that were not only on par with the class, but are things that I was proud to share with friends and family and things that allowed me to explore new hobbies and passions. This class is a great blend of work and play, and Rory feeds into this extremely well!
20.	Please provide any additional written comments on the strengths and weaknesses of the course. You may comment on such things as the use of assignments, text(s), exercises, exams, etc.	Loved broadening my perspective and worldview in this course. The readings, although could be tedious and hard to understand, made sense once we had discussions. These really encouraged me to step outside of my own understanding
21.	Please provide any additional written comments on the instructor's strengths and weaknesses.	Made the learning environment very engaging and enjoyable to come to.
22.	Please provide any additional written comments on the strengths and weaknesses of the course. You may comment on such things as the use of assignments, text(s), exercises, exams, etc.	The class discussion were definitely a benefit to the class especially considering the topics we were discussing. Much easier tackled through discussion rather than through papers and exams.
23.	Please provide any additional written comments on the instructor's strengths and weaknesses.	I really appreciate how encouraging our meetings were for projects. I felt like my process was respected as well. All in all wonderful class.
24.	Please provide any additional written comments on the strengths and weaknesses of the course. You may comment on such things as the use of assignments, text(s), exercises, exams, etc.	I LOVE that we created the rubrics together. We got to place value on the aspects of the project as we saw fit. That really felt like I wasn't passive in my own education, I was actually able to part in it.

25.	Please provide any additional written comments on the strengths and weaknesses of the course. You may comment on such things as the use of assignments, text(s), exercises, exams, etc.	This class was one that truly opened my eyes into the digital literacy of technology. The professor did a great job of explaining the topics and instructions of the assignments. The projects were all so open into what we could do that it made it a bit complicated at first to know exactly what to be doing, but after the first one, the second and third project was fun to do.
