Question	Response
1. Please provide any additional written comments on the instructor's strengths and weaknesses.	While this course is normally taught f2f I really appreciated the professor's approach to transitioning it to online and felt it retained the elements of the f2f course (discussion, engagement) extremely well.
2. Please provide any additional written comments on the strengths and weaknesses of the course. You may comment on such things as the use of assignments, text(s), exercises, exams, etc.	Despite being compressed into a ridiculously short amount of time, the content and assignments of the course provided good opportunities to engage with the material and consider their application to real world issues.
3. Please provide any additional written comments on the instructor's strengths and weaknesses.	I really enjoyed your class and appreciated that you picked content relevant to today. You were also understanding of our situation and the interference of current events. My only issue was with the requirement of replies. we'd have 3 tasks a week, 2 replies each- that's 6 replies. That's a lot given our small size and online space. I ended up feeling like I talked to the same people over and over again. Maybe less replies or the option to choose which tasks could get the replies?
